By bus

Madison Metro bus service has regular stops along John Nolen Drive, Olin Avenue and Rimrock Road. Route 13 is the closest bus route to the Alliant Energy Center and runs about once an hour on both weekdays and weekends. Routes 11 and 12 also serve the Alliant Energy Center, but have limited schedules. Check your Ride Guide for schedule times or visit mymetrobus.com.

Parking

You will receive a parking pass for each day you volunteer unless you are scheduled to work on Wednesday, before the event. Parking will be free during your shift and a pass is not required.

If you are planning to carpool or otherwise won't need a parking pass, we'd appreciate having the pass returned to us by mail. We purchase parking passes at full price ($7.00) and can receive a refund if we turn them in before the start of the event.

Handicap Parking Information

Handicap parking is located in front of the Exhibition Hall and in the back of the building near the administrative offices. The Alliant Energy Center is ADA compliant.

FAQ

When should I arrive?

The enclosed schedule letter shows the time of your job assignment(s). Training and orientation begin at the start of your shift. Please make your best effort to arrive at volunteer check-in by your scheduled start time.

Is food available?

Beverages and light snacks will be provided in the volunteer lounge. Additional food is available for purchase at snack bars and the Bistro in the lobby. The Bistro is open Thursday–Saturday and offers hot entrées and comfortable seating. Snack bars located on the exhibition floor offer pizza, hot dogs, wraps and other small snacks.

What should I wear?

Dress casually and wear comfortable shoes! Jeans are not recommended for Quilt Expo attendants. Attendants may also want to bring a sweater in case the exhibit area is chilly.

Lecture, Workshop and Main Stage

Presentation Assistants: Please bring a watch. An important part of your job is making sure that sessions begin and end on time. Note every presentation area has a clock.

Where do I leave my things?

We recommend leaving your valuables at home or locked in your car. Volunteer check-in is not staffed throughout the event and is not a safe place to leave your valuables. If you purchase items at the show, we encourage you to take advantage of our free package check located in the lobby.

Entering the building

Wednesday before the event

The main entrances will be closed so you will need to enter through the loading dock entrance behind the Exhibition Hall. The easiest way to find this entrance is to park in the South Lot. (See enclosed map for exact location.) Volunteer Check-in will be located just inside the loading dock doors where your captain will meet you for training and orientation.

Thursday – Saturday

If your shift begins BEFORE 8 a.m. the main visitor entrances will be closed, so you'll need to enter from the loading dock entrance behind the Exhibition Hall. (See above for parking tips.) Walk through the loading area (NOT the regular entrance with the glass doors). Look for large signs in the loading dock area to guide you. Make your way through the exhibition floor to the lobby. Take a left and go down the hallway and use the stairs or elevator to locate volunteer check-in on the second floor/mezzanine level.

If your shift starts AFTER 8 a.m. enter the Exhibition Hall through the main visitor entrances.

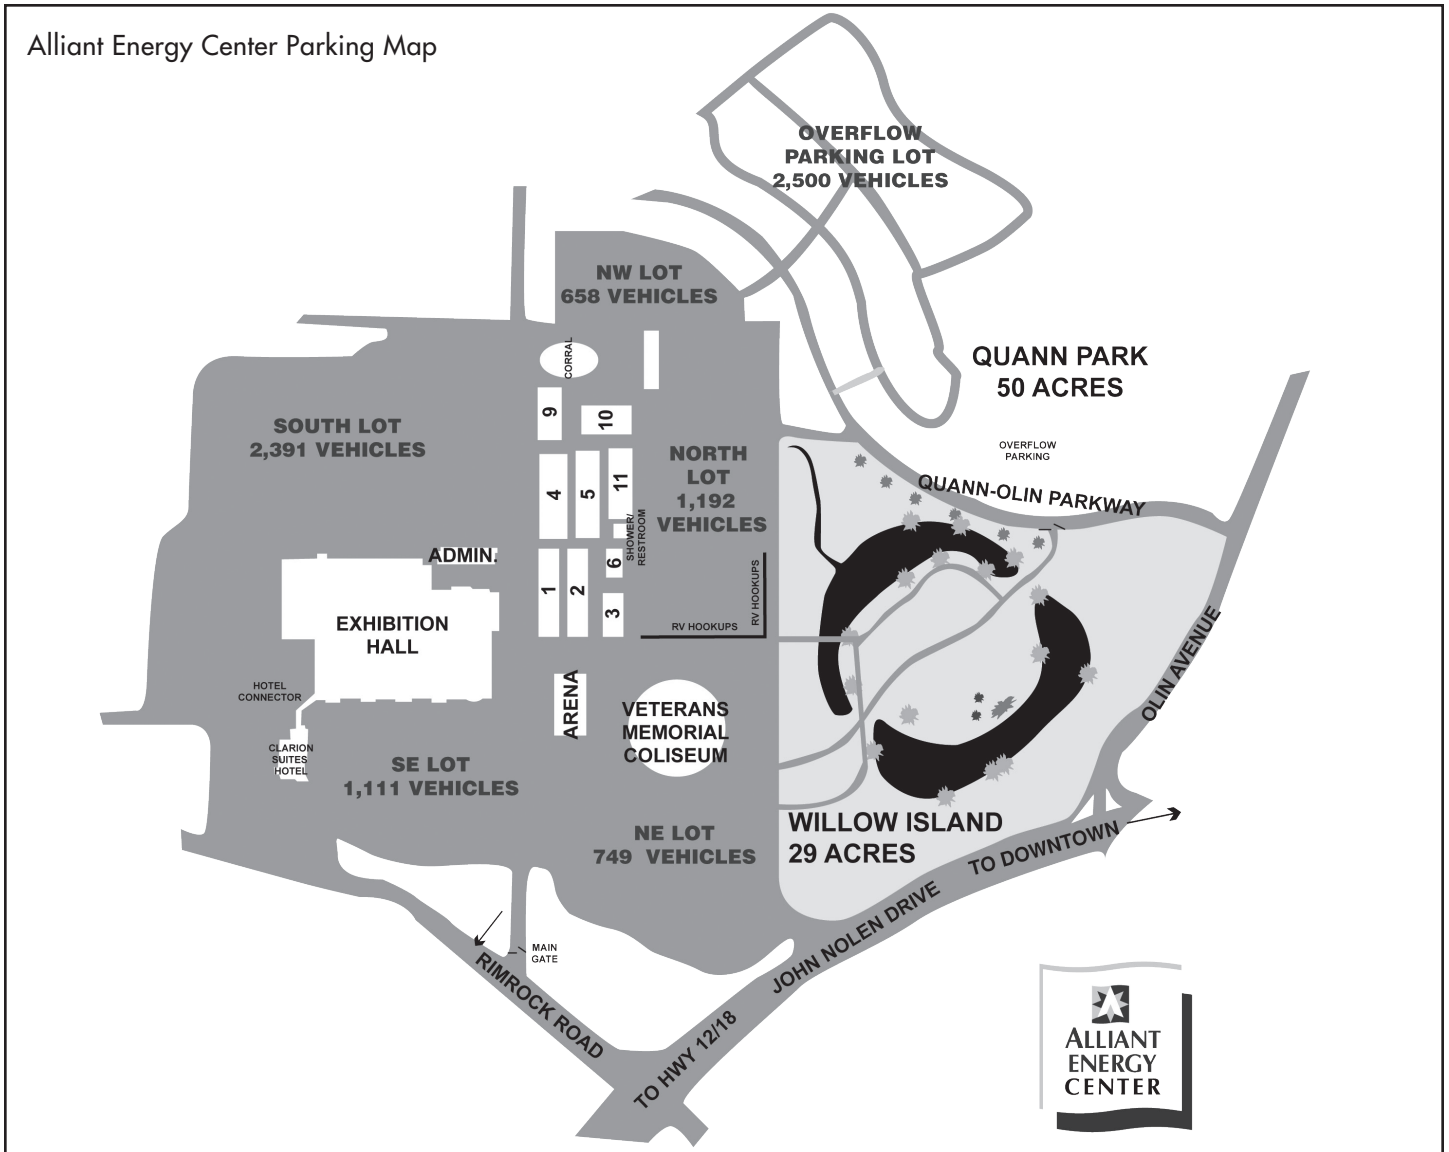

Check-In and Training

Volunteer check-in is located on the mezzanine above the lobby. Once you've checked in you will be directed to a table where your captain will meet you. He or she will either begin training in the volunteer lounge or take you to your work station and train you there.

If you are unable to make it to the mezzanine due to physical limitations, please let us know in advance and we'll make arrangements for your captain to meet you on the main floor.
